

Conditions for Owners of Certificate

1. Owners of certificate commit themselves to ensure all activities which are necessary for refreshing to keep up the validation of the certificate.
2. Owners of certificate commit themselves to provide the required confirmation (e.g. interim report, working descriptions, etc.) of their competence to ensure correlation with real practice.
3. Owners of certificate are responsible to use the certificate and the trade mark only in accordance to regulation and not to use them incorrect. Incite provides a list of all valid certificates and their owners, if required. Only certificates which are listed there are valid. Invalid certificates will be cancelled.
4. The certificates are owned by incite up to the end of validity. Owners of certificate have to refrain from reference to a certificate after suspending or cancelation. In this case they have to return the certificates issued by incite.
5. Owners of certificate agree that incite administrates and publishes a register of all Owners of certificate (e.g. internet). You may revoke your consent at any time. Please send your revocation to the email address office@incite.at.
6. Owners of certificate are responsible to forward all claims which are communicated to them from third party. The certification body is allowed to persue each claim.
7. Each owner of certificate (incl. candidates for certification) is allowed to search of procedures referring to the certification process after previous written notice.
8. Each owner of certificate is allowed to apply for extension of validity and to get it after fulfillment of requirements.
9. Owners of certificate avoid that usage of certificate does not happen in any way which could damage the image of incite. It is also forbidden to give any statement referring to certification which could be interpreted misleading or not authorized by incite.
10. Owners of certificate commit themselves to follow these "General Conditions for Owners of certificate" of incite. They note, that certificate is cancelled in case of disregard.

If the owner of certificate is not able to fulfill these "General Conditions for Owners of certificate" he/she has to return the certificate to incite.
